THE SUPREME COURT OF ONTARIO
(Hon: Mr Justice Riddell)

OSGOODE HALL,
TORONTO.

June 1st 1921.

Received

Mrs Scott Nasmith,
The Margaret Eaton School of Expression
Toronto.

My Dear Mrs Nasmith,

I find that I shall be obliged to be out of town from Sunday until Friday ^{morning} and therefore I shall be unable to accept your very kind invitation to attend the Dramatic performance.

Will you please let me know if you would prefer me wearing Academicals when addressing the Class. I have always done so and it is a seemly thing.

I presume if I arrive at the Margaret Eaton School at 8.15 p.m. that will be early enough and that you will let me away in an hour or so as I have three separate functions to attend that evening in addition to your own.

With kindest regards

I am

Yours truly

WINTER ADDRESS
LA MALBAIE

July 12th 1921

Dear Miss Macmillan

Please excuse the pencil - Frank has gone off to the golf course with the family fountain pen. I was so very happy and relieved to get your letter and to know that you were about me more. My one regret was that I could not do more to relieve the strain for you of those last few days. But if, as you say, I helped in some small measure I shall be content. The debt has always been on my mind on the other side !!

I wish with all my heart I could accept your kind offer of work at the school but, I am afraid, things being as they are, I could not possibly do anything before Christmas. If, however, you could see your way to making other arrangements for the first term I would be delighted to take the work on at the beginning of January. I really would love to get into business again and I can't quite imagine myself doing it anywhere but at the school.

Monday -

Darling Mother, - I do hope you are enjoying these lovely days, resting & being a good girl having a real holiday.

I am feeling ever ever so much better too.

I didn't see anyone, till yesterday Gordon called, Evelyn & Harry brought such a wonderful shawl that Quelyn made. Norah came in for a few minutes at night Uncle Charlie & Nell happy as clams - going home to have their supper at nine & had their breakfast in bed.

Helen Trebster's baby Helen Margaret, arrived Saturday night.

Dear Aunt Clara sent the most wonderful presents three pairs of woolly panties she made herself - Mrs Burden brought Rosemary the most marvellous dress, hand embroidered real real lace & getting the petticoat to match - Wauling it seems a shame for you spending money on a christening dress too.

Mama Mrs Porter & Ruth were here a minute Friday night & were simply so thrilled over the baby thought she was a beauty & quite wonderful & brought her a lovely shawl like Grandmas so you see she is being showered with presents - She gains an ounce every day - Beth will be along today & she will take care of her The pussy is well & thriving Bob is going down now with her breakfast.

He has been home all weekend & looks so much better - Miss Fairclough will stay another week Bob says - till I feel really well - Well dearest this is my first letter for a long while - Love all at Ancena from Baby, Bobby & Dorothy - with lots of love from Dad Hoping you Baby. 4.4

Mother Darling, -

We have loved your letters every day & I can't understand why you haven't received mine as I have written every day too.

Rosemary is one lamb But, you will see such a difference when you come home - yes she really gets prettier every 5.2

day. & now weighs 7 lbs 11 oz.
I bath her myself - 2 days & Miss Fairclough leaves on Saturday afternoon its really foolish to keep her as the Baby sleeps all the time & there is nothing to do for me at all.

Bertha has got a maid for you says she really is a splendid worker clean & nice & 21 years old only she can't come till after the threshing a week or tencdays later, but as Bertha herself suggested, you will have your dinners up her at night - really Bertha is a treasure, nothing seems to bother her in the least.

Your letters sound so cheerful they do me good. I am so glad you have had this little holiday and the days perfect. The pussy is fine & Bob takes down her supper every day - no sign or word of Hizzie Ford.

Wallace Cunningham was here & spent the afternoon with us & stayed for dinner. I only had the Chesterfield so couldn't keep him all night.

Aunt Tennell was here last night for a while & loved our Baby.
Kathleen & Harold were here poor dears they loved the Baby & I believe it did her good. She is coming again this afternoon.
Well goodbye sweetest, first Baby with love & love you all at Ancona - Much love Dorothy.

Darling Sweetheart Mother, -

I am thinking of you all day and wondering how you are getting on and if you like Braemar Lodge what they are doing & you.

Now Darling Rosemary wants to give her dear Grandmother a little present so she will be all well for all time that is ten days at Braemar, here is her very first cheque & she feels very proud. I send it with her best love her prettiest smile.

I am staying home today, getting ready for our bazaar on Thursday.

Bob had the Portis, English friend Mr. Haskay for lunch today & came home with a $\frac{1}{2}$ Million dollar business & five dep - so I say it pays & feed the species.

Rad is so anxious that you have a good rest & come back again rested you will have to concentrate on Emmie for a little while -

Goodnight Sweetheart
I didn't go to Mrs. Shaw's - I am going to end up a stay at home.

Much love from Rosemary Bokki & Dorothy
